

1886, ch. 339.

185. The council shall allow their clerk and supervisor, the bailiff and other officers, such compensation for their services as may be deemed reasonable.

Ibid.

186. The council and all other officers of the corporation before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices, shall take an oath that they will diligently and faithfully discharge the duties of their office without favor, partiality or prejudice.

Ibid.

187. The clerk and bailiff shall give bond to the mayor and council of Rockville in such penalty, and with such securities, as may be required, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of the office of clerk and bailiff, respectively; and said bonds shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for Montgomery county.

Ibid.

188. The council shall receive all election returns and determine all questions arising thereon, and any person conceiving himself aggrieved by reason of such decision, may appeal to the circuit court for Montgomery county, which shall hear and determine the same, and determine who shall pay the costs of appeal. In case of a tie at any election for mayor or members of the council, another election shall be held after ten days' notice, pursuant to the provisions foregoing in regard to elections. In case of any vacancy in the office of mayor or councilman, by death, resignation or removal from the town, said vacancy shall be filled by a vote of the council until the next election for members of the council.

Ibid.

189. The council shall have power to pass all ordinances necessary for the good government of the town; may open and close streets, lanes and alleys; prevent, remove and abate, or cause to be removed or abated, all nuisances or obstructions in or upon the sidewalks, streets, highways, lanes or alleys, drains or water-courses, or in or upon any lot adjacent thereto; and to provide for imposing a fine upon any person causing, creating or
